MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Utilization of Excess Stocks of Agency Materiel

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for DCI approval.

Such recommendation is contained in paragraph 3.

2. At the present time, the Office of Logistics has on hand considerable excess stocks of certain categories of materiel. Additional excesses will be generated within the supply system due to items becoming obsolete and requirements failing to materialize. In order to preclude total loss of such assets to the Agency, every effort should be made to utilize such excesses within the Agency to expand the scope of activities for training or other operational needs.

3. In order to make every effort to utilize excess stocks internally, it is recommended that the following actions be approved as a matter of policy and to make this policy known to all operating entities:

a. The Director of Logistics has authority over the disposition of property, [] which includes excess property as defined in

[] In order that these assets may be utilized more effectively within the Agency, prior to effecting external disposition, the Director of Logistics will publish lists of excess property and circulate them to operating officials. Each operating official will review the lists to determine if the excess property might be used for training, operating or other purposes above those approved for current
